CHRIST THE KING – Today is the beautiful feast of Christ the King and the last Sunday of the Church Year “C”. Next Sunday will be the First Sunday of Advent and the beginning of the Church Year “A”. In today’s gospel, Jesus wears a crown, but it is a crown of thorns. And on the cross is the message “King of the Jews”. Jesus is truly a King, but not a King of this world. This world will pass away. Jesus is King of our hearts, King of those who love him and follow him.

WELCOME to Father Duncan MacDonnell who is with us today while Father Mike McCaffery is away.

NEXT SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 28th – Archbishop Richard Smith will be with us for Mass and for Confessions before Christmas. When he came before Easter, he offered to come before Christmas too. We are very grateful to him for his kind thoughtfulness of us deaf people. Don’t forget to thank him for coming. And do spread the news to others who don’t know about this.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 12th – St. Mark’s Annual Christmas Party and Potluck lunch will be on this day. This year it will be in the PRC room #161. We will have a visit from St. Nicholas. Our present Santa Claus actually comes from St. Nicholas who loved children and the poor. He was a bishop and would bring them gifts. See our flyer.

To the King of the Ages, who is immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever.
