TODAY we warmly welcome Father Mike McCarthy who is replacing Father Matthew. Father Matthew is on Retreat with other priests in Rome. He will be back with us for Mass next Sunday.

IN TODAY'S gospel, Jesus speaks about seeds. We plant but it is God who makes them grow. He then compared Heaven like a mustard seed. It is the smallest of all seeds but it grows to become a small tree that birds come and sit on its branches. We plant seeds in others hearts when we talk to them about Jesus. That is what Jesus wants us to do.

COMING EVENT – St. Mark's annual BBQ on Father's Day, Sunday, June 21st in the PRC auditorium or outside, weather permitting.

MINUTE MEDIATION

Sharing the message of the Gospel always comes down to one thing, a personal encounter with Jesus Christ through his word, his presence in the Eucharist, and his presence in other people. from Pope Francis and our Call to Joy
